Errors and Omissions

26 November 1999: On page 300 during the Question Period topic “Earth Fund lottery” the Leader of the Opposition is listed as speaking twice; Pat Mella should have been listed as speaking in the first instance.

2 December 1999: In the bound edition of Hansard, from page 465 through to midway through the first column of page 477, the font is increased in size from its normal proportions. This error is also repeated in the online version of Hansard, though as a result of the discrepancy in pagination between the bound and online versions of Hansard, the increase in font size online starts on page 466 and ends on page 478.

8 December 1999: On page 630 during the Question Period topic “Emergency home repair program,” Richard Brown is incorrectly listed as speaking to the question. It should have been Robert Morrissey.
